Teacher's Day Celebration

Date: 5th September, 2023

Location: Lecture Room

Introduction

On September 5, 2023, the Department of Statistics at the University of Delhi celebrated Teacher's Day with great enthusiasm and gratitude towards the dedicated teaching staff. The event was meticulously organized by Udaan - the Socio-Cultural Cell of the department, and it brought together both students and teachers to commemorate this special occasion. The event took place in the Lecture room II of our department premises from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM.

Event Highlights

Welcome Speech

The event was graced by the presence of esteemed faculty members. The Head of the Department, Prof. Mrs. Ranjita Pandey, was in attendance, along with the senior-most teacher, Prof. Mrs. Poonam Singh. The event also saw the participation of other respected teachers, including Assistant Professors Dr. Zuber Akther, Dr. Dreamlee Sharma, Dr. Suman Jaiswal, Dr. Sumit Kumar, and Dr. Manoj Kumar, as well as Associate Professor Dr. Devendra Kumar.

In addition to the teaching staff, the event recognized the valuable contributions of non-teaching staff members, including Jagat Singh Ji, Swati Singh, and Mahi. Their dedication and support play a crucial role in the smooth functioning of the department.

Tokens of appreciation and Cake-cutting ceremony

As a token of appreciation and respect, small gifts were presented to all teachers, acknowledging their tireless efforts and commitment to shaping the future of students. The thoughtful gesture was extended to the non-teaching staff as well.

One of the highlights of the event was the cake-cutting ceremony, symbolizing the sweetness of the bond between teachers and students. The entire gathering joined in this joyous moment, which fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie. After the formal proceedings, the department provided refreshments for both students and teachers, creating a relaxed and friendly atmosphere for interactions and conversations.

Vote of Thanks

In her closing remarks, Prof. Mrs. Ranjita Pandey, the Head of the Department, extended her appreciation to the organizers and highlighted the importance of collaboration between students and teachers for the department's successful functioning. She emphasized the role of research scholars in supporting the academic pursuits of the department.

Conclusion

The Teacher's Day event at the Department of Statistics, University of Delhi, was a heart-warming celebration that showcased the deep respect and admiration that students hold for their teachers. It also served as a reminder of the strong bonds that tie the academic community together. The event ended on a note of gratitude, with everyone leaving with fond memories of the day.
