

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS
FACULTY OF MATHEMATICAL
SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
DELHI-110007

HERITAGE WALK AT SAFDARJUNG TOMB AND LODHI GARDEN

Date: 20th April 2024

Location: Safdarjung Tomb and Lodhi Garden

Safdarjung Tomb is considered a heritage place due to its historical and architectural significance. It's a fine example of Mughal architecture, built in the late 18th century. Its grandeur, intricate design, and cultural importance make it a symbol of India's rich heritage and history. Additionally, its well-preserved state allows visitors to appreciate and learn from its architectural and historical significance.

On 20th of, April 2024 the Heritage Club conducted its Heritage walk. The walk started at around 8:30 AM from the gates of Lodhi Garden. Teacher Coordinator Dr. Sumit Kumar along with Dr. Zuber Akhter and Dr. Girish Chandra accompanied the students.

Immersed in the serene atmosphere of Lodhi Garden and Safdarjung Tomb, the students embarked on a historical exploration, venturing inside the captivating tombs whispered tales of bygone eras. Students explored different tombs inside Lodhi Garden including Safdarjung Tomb. They learned about its architecture and significance. They also captured the beauty through photos. It turned out to be a well-rounded educational adventure.

As the morning unfolded, the energy shifted from quiet contemplation to vibrant camaraderie. Students and teachers alike cast aside their inhibitions and revealed in a delightful array of games. Laughter filled the gardens as students and teachers played games like 'dog in the pond' and 'dumb charades'.

The summer heat called for a cool treat, so everyone – students and teachers – enjoyed some delicious ice cream. With so many flavours to choose from, there was something for everyone. Everybody enjoyed the yummy break together.

The walk turned out to be much more than just a stroll. Every step taken by the students and teachers in the beautiful green space gave them energy and made them feel happy and refreshed. This trip to the park was not just about history and games. It has also proved to be greatly beneficial for their health. In the end, the visit to Lodhi Garden was like a treasure chest – it had a little bit of everything, and most importantly, showed us how amazing a simple walk in nature can be.

After the walk, everybody took some group pictures for memories and said their goodbyes. The trip ended at around 1:00 PM.

