ISS WEBINAR

Date: 27th April, 2024

Location: Google Meet

On 27th April, 2024 the Heritage Club, Department of Statistics, University of Delhi, organized a session featuring Mr. Prakhar Gupta, an accomplished alumnus of Ramanujan College, who pursued his Masters' degree from the Department of Statistics, University of Delhi and secured a notable All India Rank 5 in the UPSC Indian Statistical Services (ISS) Examination, 2023. The event began with a warm introduction of Mr. Prakhar, followed by Professor Suman Jaiswal's presence, which added to the ambiance of the session.

Mr. Prakhar initiated the session by providing a comprehensive overview of the ISS syllabus, drawing parallels with the curriculum of the Masters' program in Statistics. He carefully explained how the two match up, giving students useful tips on how to prepare for the important exam. In his discourse, Mr. Prakhar generously shared a list of recommended books essential for aspirants aiming to excel in the ISS examination. He discussed various online platforms and resources available to supplement aspirants learning endeavours. He highlighted the importance of utilising these resources to broaden their knowledge base and enhance their understanding of statistical concepts. He also provided customised strategies for students with varied goals, be it pursuing higher studies, aiming for a Ph.D., or preparing for competitive exams. His advice was invaluable, providing a roadmap for success in diverse academic pursuits.

Amidst sharing his expertise, Mr. Prakhar candidly discussed his personal challenges, study routines, and imparted valuable advice on time management, skill development, and personality enhancement. His insights resonated with the audience, offering practical wisdom crucial for academic and personal growth.

In the concluding segment, students actively engaged with him, posing queries and expressing doubts. He addressed each question with absolute clarity, making the learning experience more interactive and valuable.

Overall, the session was profoundly engaging and interactive, leaving a lasting impact on the attendees. Through Mr. Prakhar's guidance, the students gained invaluable knowledge, clarity, and motivation to embark on their academic and professional journeys with confidence.
